The Unknown Soldier Has Come Home

Lois Daley Laycock 1998

He heard his country call
For brave men to fight
No matter the sacrifice
In his heart, it was allright

There upon the battlefield
Across the misty rise
The gloom and doom at Vimy
Was right before his eyes

Wind blew the poison gas
And quickly it did spread
Anguished days were spent
On the ground of red

Mud and mire filled the trenches
They were cold and grey
Dying bodies laying still
Haunted him everyday

On the fields of France
His broken body lay
Nothing to identify him
He died in a perilous way

There was no mourning
For this Canadian brave
Only a wooden cross
Marked his lonely grave

The unknown soldier has come home
And in this tomb will lie
God will find him a special place
Under the silence of the sky

The Main Floor Bistro Make-Over

Have you seen the new fireplace and paint color in the main floor bistro? Over the next few weeks you will see the main floor bistro receive a make-over as it is our goal to make the bistro a warm and inviting place to gather with friends and family for lunch, dinner or tea and coffee. We hope you enjoy.

Update to 2nd Floor – Tulip Court/Tulip Way

Starting in November the 2nd floor will be split into 2 home areas. East – Tulip Court and the West – Tulip Way. Each home area will have dedicated nursing and care aide staff as well as separated meal services, activities, etc. The resident and family kitchen will be used for those residents living in Tulip Way. You will notice that the doors separating east and west home areas will be closed, but not locked, and this is to help identify the two separate home areas. Throughout the month of November we will be working to create great Eden Philosophy home areas for both Tulip Court and Tulip Way. For more on Eden Philosophy visit...

Resident Autumn Lunch

On October 25th we celebrated the launch of the new flower-themed Home Area's at the Resident Autumn Luncheon. It was incredible to see how much work and passion went into the unique decorations, themes and resident involvement in each home area. Each area was judged in keeping with the Eden Philosophy of Change and the results are:

1st Place – Lily Landing with it's Floral and Halloween Theme. Activities included residents in costumes, and pumpkin painting.

2nd Place – Poppy Lane with the most innovative Wizard of Oz theme décor, games and costumes.

3rd Place – Daisy Garden which had the strongest empowering and community feel. The incredible decorations were only eclipsed by the resident smiles and engagement.

Special Mentions:

Tulip Court – with its rich history of the flower, authentic outfits and themed table clothes. Each resident had hand-made head pieces and were very engaged.

Bluebelle Place – The whole floor was completely decorated in Blue Paper Bells. Excellent set up and use of the whole floor.

Lilac Grove – This group had the strongest passion for their theme which included Greek themed decorations and residents in Togas.
